

MEDIA ALERT

Maggie Philbin
Brock Communications
P. (813) 961-8388
C. (203) 394-1818
maggie@brockcomm.com
PHOTOS AVAILABLE

LOCAL TEENS HONORED AT FRAMEWORKS OF TAMPA BAY ANNUAL HEAD & HEART LUNCHEON

Who: Frameworks of Tampa Bay

What: Three teens from Frameworks of Tampa Bay's youth service program, Teens in Action, will step on stage to share their personal stories of how emotional intelligence has shaped their young adult lives and accept the organization's annual recognition of the Head & Heart Award.

Mauzor Ilonzo, a sophomore in the King High School IB program, has volunteered 97 hours since December 2012 with Metropolitan Ministries with a focus on tutoring children.

JT Faircloth, a junior at Plant High School, has volunteered 85 hours since December 2012 with Metropolitan Ministries with a focus on mentoring children.

Chaya Bhat, a sophomore in the Robinson High School IB program, has volunteered 97 hours since December 2012 with Habitat for Humanity with a focus on building local homes.

Additionally, Dr. Stephen K. Klasko, CEO of University of South Florida Health, and Allen Brinkman, president and CEO of SunTrust Bank Tampa Bay, will be awarded the Head & Heart Award.

Where: A La Carte Event Pavilion
4050 Dana Shores Dr.
Tampa, FL 33634

When: Thursday, April 18, 2013
Noon – 1 p.m.
Registration and networking begins at 11:30am

About:

Frameworks of Tampa Bay, Inc., formerly the Ophelia Project and Boys Initiative, was founded in 2002. The organization announced a new name, Frameworks of Tampa Bay, in April 2011 and is a nonprofit organization that seeks to advance the positive social and emotional development of youth, ages eight to 18, in the Tampa Bay community. Frameworks of Tampa Bay, Inc. offers workshops and resources for youth and adults to build high social and emotional intelligence, develop ethical leaders, bolster academic performance, and enhance social awareness and understanding. For additional information visit: www.myframeworks.org.*

###